There are 13 irrigation districts in southern Alberta providing water to 1,359,153 assessed acres of farmland. The infrastructure within these irrigation districts is comprised of approximately 8,000 kilometers of conveyance system, of which 339 kilometers are owned and operated by Alberta Environment.

Figure 19. Alberta’s Irrigation Districts